

...From The Front

PAGE 2A

THE WASATCH WAVE

Sub-For-Santa Goal In Sight

Francis Harrison, secretary of the Lion's Club, and Bob Azlin, Lion's Club president, present Gayle Smith a $350.00 check for Sub for Santa. Smith says with the tremendous response this year's Sub-For-Santa fund goal has nearly been reached.

26 Nov 1997

Douglas Lee Selected As December Artist Of Month By Library Friends

Douglas Lee was born in Vernal, Utah, the sixth of seven children. As a child, he spent many hours drawing and always wanted to be an artist. Doug graduated with a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree from the University of Utah, and taught art in Utah, Colorado and Idaho.

Doug has shown his work at various Utah venues including: The University of Utah, The Stable in Salt Lake City, The Salt Lake City Library, The Kimball Art Center in Park City, and The Park City Art Festival. He's also exhibited in California, Colorado and Tennessee.

Doug's main medium are acrylics used as water color, on three hundred pound arches paper and on canvas. He gains his inspiration from all periods of art and loves painting both, on location and by using his imagination. Michelangelo, Rembrandt, Cezanne and Kandinsky bring out Doug's special vibrant spirit.

Doug and his family live in Charleston, Utah and own The House of Fine Arts, at 310 North Main Street in Heber City.

The Artist of The Month is sponsored by The Friends of the Library. You'll enjoy the artistic talent of a different local artist each month exhibited inside The Wasatch County Library. Doug Lee will exhibit his work December 3 through January 5. You're invited to Doug's opening reception on December 3, from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. Refreshments are provided. This is your chance to check out your library and meet with old and new friends. Thank you for your support.

Midway Youth Recognized In National Forage Program

Alan Rail, 19, of the Wasatch FFA Chapter, in Utah is one of four national finalists who competed for the title of national winner in the Forage Production proficiency award program at the 70th National FFA Convention Nov. 13-15 in Kansas City, Mo.

Proficiency awards recognize FFA members who excelled as agricultural entrepreneurs, employees or volunteers while they gained hands-on career experience. Forage Production is one of 41 FFA proficiency award categories offered at local, state, and national levels. The Forage Production proficiency award program is sponsored by Gehl Company and Novartis Seeds, Inc. as a special project of the National FFA Foundation.

Alan became interested in forage production as a young boy working with his uncle. From a part time position, Alan is now manager of the sprinkler operations on the farm and works with a crew of four men. His major activities include: cutting hay; moving sprinklers (twice a day in the summer); hauling hay to storage; and raking hay. He has acquired a number of skills including: safe operation of forage equipment from cutting to baling; determining the proper conditions in which to cut and bale hay; effective management and placement of the sprinklers. Alan plans to attend college and major in forage production.

Rail is the son of Joe and Laurel Rail.

FFA is a national organization of 449,814 members preparing for leadership and careers in the science, business and technology of agriculture. The organization has 7,241 local chapters located throughout the United States, Puerto Rico, Guam and the Virgin Islands. FFA's mission is to make a positive difference in the lives of students by developing their potential for premier leadership, personal growth and career success through agricultural education. Local, state and national activities and award programs provide opportunities for students to apply knowledge and skills learned in the classroom.

Alan Rail, far right, was a national winner in the Forage Production program.

Shades of Black and White

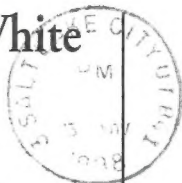

Gloria Montgomery's
Drawings and Paintings

November 16, 1998 - January 4, 1999

Please join us at a reception
Wed., Nov. 18 from 6:00 pm to 8:00 pm

Wasatch County Library
188 South Main Street - Heber City Utah

In cooperation with Friends of the Library and Heber Valley Arts Council

Dr & Mrs Raymond Green
375 E 200 St.
Heber City, UT 84032

